

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who can send comments in response to the consultation?

IDB Invest will accept comments from any individual or organization wishing to participate in the public consultation process, including clients, private-sector organizations, civil society organizations, communities impacted by development projects, government agencies, development institutions, donors, international financial institutions, academics, and research centers. Anonymous comments will not be considered.

How should the comments be sent?

The comments can be submitted in writing by registering through IDB Invest's Public Consultation webpage here. Once registered, you will receive news and updates on the consultation.

Are there other ways to participate?

You can also participate via:

- E-mail: Send your comments directly to the following e-mail address: consultation@idbinvest.org
- Postal mail: Send your comments to the following address:

ATTN: IDB Invest Access to Information Policy

1350 New York Avenue, N.W.

Washington, D.C. 20577. USA.

When using these contact methods, please include the following information to ensure your comments can be processed correctly: name of sender, company or organization (if applicable), address, country, and e-mail address.

In which language should I send my comments?

Comments can be sent in any of the four official languages of IDB Invest: Spanish, English, Portuguese, and French.

What is the deadline for sending comments?

You have 120 calendar days to comment starting May 23th, 2018.

When and where will the in-person consultations take place?

Panama (5/6 July), Argentina (9/10 August), Brazil (13/14 August), Costa Rica (17/18 September), Jamaica (20/21 September) and Washington, DC. (27/28 September).

How can I register for the in-person consultations?

You can register online from IDB Invest's Public Consultation webpage.

Can anyone attend the in-person consultations?

The in-person consultations will have two formats:

Open forums for individuals and organizations wishing to participate.

Targeted meetings with certain key stakeholders, by invitation only.